

Iaci's Training Center

DESCRIPTION

conducts technical courses maintaining international standards and has been responsible for the training of IACI's Personnel during the last 47 years. This center enjoys its well-equipped work-shops and classroom and highly knowledgeable instructors who have all had many years of technical and practical experience. A brief of courses performed in this center for a variety of Aircraft & Engines are as follows:

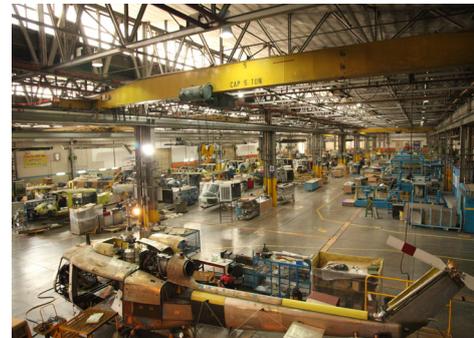

- A) The General Aviation training course outline modules of theoretical and practical training are conducted according to CAO.IRI Part-147 standard B1-B2 courses
- B) Specialized technical courses are performed for selected engineers, whether in Iran or abroad, according to related types of Aircraft
- C) Other specialized courses are also conducted in this center for back-shops and manufacturing activities

N.M.P (National Maintenance Point)

DESCRIPTION

N.M.P center is a topmost reference for decision making in the field of maintenance, which is following policy and strategy of defense ministry, through below strategic goals. Improve in fleet support services and product Improve in services and delivery times.Improve in price of product and services. Development in abilities and capabilities. Improve in customer services.

Dynamic Parts Repair

DESCRIPTION

In Dynamic Shop, Repairing of all types of helicopters Rotary parts such as mast, hub, M/R head and T/R head is done.

Blades Repairs

DESCRIPTION

The damaged blades sent to blades shop after passing de-colorization process for making necessary repair, re-coloring and static balance.

